Carraro receives the "Supplier of the Year Award 2021" from CLAAS

The Group is awarded as best partner in the Innovation category.

Last April 20, the Carraro Group – represented by the R&D and Sales teams – had the honor of receiving the important “Supplier of the Year Award”, in the Innovation category, from Rüdiger Mohr, Senior Vice President Corporate Purchasing at CLAAS Group.

This prestigious Award, which comes in the frame of a twenty-year-long collaboration between the two companies, is the result of a new project in which they worked together on the development of a rear axle for self-propelled harvesters.

The CLAAS Group, in conferring this Prize, emphasized how Carraro has distinguished itself as a supplier with proven technical and engineering skills and expertise, capable of developing innovative solutions that are able to integrate the special features required in the implementation of its vehicles.

The readiness and motivation shown by Carraro in handling with flexibility the various production steps makes it a reliable partner able to provide new and high-quality solutions.

This recognition, which rewards in particular Carraro's technical know-how and innovation, represents a great confirmation of the solidity of the existing partnership with CLAAS Group with a view to further developments in the near future.
